Reading the isotopic clocks
If you need ¹⁴C dates come to the experts
For the reliable data and custom service that your research demands, come to Teledyne Isotopes. Our labs have the staff, the equipment, the experience to handle all your research needs in radiocarbon and related analyses.
Reliability of data is assured through:
• Sample analysis done in modern, efficient labs
• Inter-calibration with major university and government labs
• Use of N.B.S. standards and other internationally recognized reference materials
For all your age determination needs, contact the experienced company . . .
